

RECOGNIZING AND RESPONDING TO HUMAN TRAFFICKING

April 29, 2019

8 a.m. - Noon

Human Health Building, Room 1050

CEs available

oakland.edu/nursing

Human Trafficking 2019 Monday, April 29, 2019

This half-day conference is designed for nurses, health care providers, law enforcement, members of the legal, social, and educational systems, current OU faculty, staff, and students, and anyone interested in further understanding the impact of human trafficking. The conference will focus on the myths and facts of human trafficking as well as how to recognize signs that someone might be a victim and how to initiate the important dialog to ask.

CEU credits will be offered to registered nurses, social workers, and teachers.

Date: Monday, April 29, 2019
Time: 8 a.m. - 1 p.m.
Cost: Registration: $35
Early Bird (by March 10, 2019): $30
Location: Oakland University
Human Health Building Rm 1050
433 Meadow Brook Rd
Rochester, MI 48309-4452

Registration Information :

No refunds after April 22, 2019.

Continuing Education Credits are non-refundable.

For more information about the program, please contact Amy Johnson at johnson2@oakland.edu or at (248) 364-8704.

For questions regarding the registration, please contact Professional and Continuing Education (PACE) at oupace@oakland.edu or at (248) 370-4699.

When registering more than one participant please indicate the number of participants in the quantity.

Stock number: 2802202
Price: $30.00