Money Smart
Week Michigan
Event

Saturday, April 11, 2020
12:00 Noon to 2:00 P.M.

Southfield Parks and Rec Dept
26000 Evergreen Rd.
Southfield MI

FREE and open to the public

Presenter: Scott Reed a Vietnam veteran's son and a professional financial advisor for Edwards Jones Investments will help make sense of investing, provide insight into the world of financial investments and present an entrepreneurship opportunity. www.edwardjones.com

For the average working-class American citizen including veterans and military personnel and their family members. The world of financial investments is foreign, seemingly unattainable and often intimidating.

Come out experience something new and connect with veterans, their family members and the community at large. There will be networking opportunities, vendors and refreshments served. This event is free and open to public. Seating is limited so register online now:
