This club was started last year in honor of the Crocker House sesquicentennial to learn more about what was available for reading 150 years ago.

Meetings are every THIRD WEDNESDAY of the month,
(excluding December) starting at 4:00 P.M.

During good weather., the Book Club will be held at the Crocker House Museum garden for social distancing of six feet.
Meetings will be held via Zoom during inclement weather.

Note that the times might change for various reasons.
If you plan to attend, R.S.V.P. to confirm time and place of meeting.

Read the book before the meeting to enjoy the discussion.
Even if you have not read it, come to hear about it!

Send an email to info@crockerhousemuseum.org if you would like to join us.
It's free, interesting and fun!
